Exclusive: New Cure DVD and live CD out now !

Yes, we're not joking, there are two new official releases from the band out in Brazil through the company annex label DVDbrazil. The Cure DVD "The greatest videos from 1987-1990" is now out and holds extra material such as homemade takes from the band, selected from a total of 12 hours of gross material. Including backstage scenes from the show recorded at de Dodgers Stadium in 1989 and at Crystal Palace with special appearances of All About Eve, James and Lush, plus radio interviews, TV presentations and much more this is a must have for every Cure fan! Included is also the "Close To Me" closer mix version, a sequel of the original videoclip from 1985 which finishes when the band is inside a cabinet and falls in a deep sea. The DVD holds 11 videos from "Why Can't I Be You? (rare extended 12in. version)", "Harold And Joe" - song bonus, "Catch", "Hot, Hot, Hot!!! (12in. version)", "Just Like Heaven", "Lullaby", "Fascination Street", "Lovesong", "Pictures Of You", "Never Enough" and "Close To Me (closer mix)" remixed by Paul Oakenfold in 1990. Available in an all region DVD in Dolby Digital 5.1. Next out on DVDbrazil is The Cure live album "Live in LA" recorded recorded live in Los Angeles, CA, USA, on July 27th, 1981. Included on the disc are 15 tracks: "The Holy Hour", "In Your House", "The Drowning Man", "10:15 Saturday Night", "Accuracy", "The Funeral Party", "M", "Primary", "Other Voices", "All Cats Are Grey", "Three Imaginary Boys", "At Night", "Fire In Cairo", "Play For Today" and "Grinding Halt / Splintered in Her Head". Let us remind you that these products are completely legal and official. Fact is that currently in Brazil, many major studios are leasing the copyrights from some titles (they are not interested in at the moment) to independent companies such as DVDbrazil. Complete reviews of these items will be published in Side-Line #43 which will also feature an exclusive talk with Erasure! Click below to purchase these fine items!
